

Clayblock Ltd.

“We pay your heating bills for the first 6 months”

Terms & Conditions

1./ Basic Terms:

Clayblock Ireland (Clayblock Ltd) starts a promotion from 21st of January in 2020 until 31st of December in 2020. This promotion applies to all the contracts that are signed on or before 31st of December in 2020 for domestic houses that are new build in the Republic of Ireland in 2020 or 2021 using Porotherm clay blocks that are supplied by Clayblock Ltd.

2./ Minimum value:

The domestic house external walls must be fully build with Porotherm clay blocks that are purchased from Clayblock Limited in 2020 or 2021, at the minimum retail value of €20,000 excluding VAT.

3./ Construction:

The “Supply only” or “Supply and Build” contract must be signed on or before 31st of December in 2020. The construction can start in 2021 but must be finished on or before 31st of November 2022.

4./ Payments:

The period that forms the bases for the payments, starts from the first night that the family or couple will occupy the property and will continuous to occupy the property. The payment is based on the electricity bills or oil/gas usage. The payment will cover the heating cost only excluding any other charges or fees. Clayblock Ireland will cover a maximum cost of €100/month for the first six months, totally up to €600. This payment can be made after the first actual invoice, that is covering the period that the customer starts to occupy the property.

5./ Exceptions of payment:

The heating bill that Clayblock Ltd will pay, can include only domestic clay block houses that are built at the same address as in the contract. Clayblock Ireland can and will refuse the payment if any other building/farming unit or other activities that may be connected to the same heating system. Clayblock Ltd will also refuse the payment if any criminal activities are connected to the same address.

We will ask you to read this document before you sign our contract, once you have signed you are agree to our Terms & Conditions as stated above.

21/01/2020

Clayblock Limited